

The theme Owing the Space relates to health professionals taking control of the clinical space, of which, digital technologies is a fundamental part. This theme encompasses the elements of belonging, taking control and accepting responsibility to be present. The theme reflects two of Belshaw's elements: Confident and Constructive.

Click here to read about the interviews that informed the development of this theme.

Capability levels

BASIC LEVEL

Demonstrates willingness to have a presence in various digital spaces, and creativity in design or content.

MEDIUM LEVEL

Identifies own authorship of contributions in varied digital spaces.

ADVANCED LEVEL

Takes control of digital spaces, such as through editing or moderating content, as well as self censoring contributions.